CHAPTER PREVIEW

In this beautiful kapitel, the Bnei Korach sing of the immense holiness and glory of Yerushalayim, the beloved city of Hashem whose foundations rest on the holy mountains. While other nations boast of their own places of birth, the ultimate honor is reserved for those born in Tzion, whom Hashem Himself counts and establishes. The kapitel concludes with a joyful vision of singers and dancers praising the city, declaring that all their deepest wells of inspiration and life flow directly from her.

The overview is the editor's commentary and is not part of the original text.
